

Name: _____

Date: _____

Lesson Two Review – Rise of the Rancho Economy

Fill in the Blank

1. A hand-drawn map called a _____ had to be given to the government by anyone wanting a land grant.
2. To _____ means to trade. Specifically, you are trying to get the best possible bargain for your goods.

True/False

3. _____ The cattle from the ranchos was often sold for its tallow, or fat. It was then used to make soap and candles.
4. _____ California's economy grew during the time of the ranchos.
5. _____ Until 1841, Fort Ross was a fort for Russian fur traders.

Complete Sentences

6. How did citizens obtain land grants? How did those land grants change California?

7. Why were ranchos were built to be self-sustaining?

8. What did Californios gained through trade and what did they give up?
